MEDICINAL

PERIL IN THE HAND-SHAKE.

Not long ago Dr. J. N. Hirsch, of Chicago, said: "The most delicate perfume upon the hands is not a sign of freedom from germs, and the most refined are not free from disease of lungs or throat, and the germs are rapidly spread by touching the hand, that has handled the handkerchief of one afflicted with a cold, catarrh or consumption. The breath one inhales from the lungs of another may contain germs of disease. You will not only be able to resist the germs of consumption, but many thousands of cases have been known where persons who were suffering from incipient phthisis, or the early stages of consumption were cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, by maintaining a person's nutrition by enabling him to eat, retain, digest and assimilate food. It overcomes the gastric irritability and symptoms of indigestion, and thus the person is saved from those symptoms of fever, night sweats, headache, etc., which are so common.

An alternative extract like Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, made of roots and herbs, without the use of alcohol, will assist the stomach in assimilating or taking up from the food such elements as are required for the blood, will assist the liver in throwing off the poisons in the system. Do not permit some designing druggist to insult your intelligence by offering you a remedy which he claims is "just as good" because he made it up himself, or ten chances to one you will get a medicine made up largely of alcohol, which will only weaken the system.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is heartily recommended by every person who has ever used it and it has stood the test of thirty-eight years of approval from people all over the United States.

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to any expense of mailing only. Send at one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or at stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. W. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpelide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpelide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures dandruff and drives away a cold in the head quickly. It is absorbed into the scalp and protects the membrane. Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. Full size 50c, at Druggists or by mail. Trial size 50c, by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street New York.

Attempts to Dynamite Foundry.

A third attempt to blow up the plant of the Newport (Ky.) Brass and Iron Foundry with dynamite has been made, considerable damage being done to one of the buildings. This foundry is one of those covered by the injunction of Judge A. C. Thompson, of the United States District Court, restraining strikers from molesting employees of the works. The plant has been inclosed by a 12-foot fence and the non-union men live within this stockade. The gravest fears are entertained of a clash at the foundry. The Cincinnati Foundry Association armed all the non-union employees there with repeating rifles before the men quit work last night.

Dynamite was also found in a mold at the Eureka foundry in Cincinnati. Soon afterward warrants were issued for Frederick Rauhauser, aged 20, a molder's apprentice, and for his father and for Joseph Hollowell. If the expected explosion had happened the dynamite in the mold would have greatly damaged the foundry and endangered the lives of non-union men. It is alleged that the apprentice confessed his participation in the plot to blow up the foundry and gave the names of fellow-conspirators, one being an official of an organization with which he is connected. It stated that the apprentice told where the dynamite cartridges were purchased and that he admitted he received $100 to place the dynamite in the mold.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Joseph F. Valentine, president of the Iron Molders' Union of North America, whose headquarters are in Cincinnati. Valentine is charged with aiding the attempted dynamiting at the Eureka foundry.

Following the arrest of Thomas Bracken, a union founder, at Detroit, Monday night, for the alleged murder in Cincinnati October 7 of Samuel Weakley, a non-union foundry workman, detectives charge two plots against certain strikers, one for the murder of Weakley and the other for the poisoning of a number of non-union men who were stopping at a large boarding house.

Eugene Trainer, aged 34 years, and employed at the Mowry Car Wheel Works, was arrested in Cincinnati, charged as accessory with Bracken in the murder of Weakley. Detectives in the employ of the Cincinnati Employers' Association and the National Foundry Association state there will be at least two more arrests of the accessories.

William Friend alias William Patton, also a union foundry workman, who was with the strikers, is in jail charged with being the principal in the murder of Weakley. Patton admitted killing Weakley, but said he did it in self-defense. He denied that there was any plot.

The foundry workers of Cincinnati, Covington and Newport have been on strike the greater part of the year. Following repeated disturbances, the employers secured an injunction against interferences with new men, and several were arrested for disregarding orders of the court. After the murder of Weakley, at a Sunday meeting of the unions half a dozen detectives, disguised as workmen, secured union cards and joined the strikers in order to gather evidence. The detectives claim to have evidence involving a number of union molders not only in the plot to kill Weakley, but also in the general plot to poison the non-union molders in Cincinnati at the molders' boarding house.

Woman Fired on Mob.
The settlement across the Big Sandy river from Yorkville, W. Va., has been the scene of a fatal feud between the family of John Wallace and the Curry brothers. The Currys demanded liquor at Wallace's saloon Monday night, but were refused, because, it is alleged, they were already intoxicated. The Curry brothers then began shooting and Wallace closed his saloon.

Later the Currys and others went to Wallace's home, demanding that Wallace come out. When Mrs. Wallace told them her husband was not at home the crowd broke in the windows, whereupon Mrs. Wallace fired, fatally wounding Thomas Curry. The crowd then began to tear down the Wallace home, and, seizing a young brother of Mrs. Wallace, they bound him hand and foot and laid his head on a log. It is said one of the Curry brothers was about to decapitate the youngster when Wallace fired and the crowd scattered, leaving the boy unhurt.

The Curry party again attacked Wallace's home and Mrs. Wallace was shot in the leg and in the shoulder. She rode to Louisa, Ky., and the Sheriff and deputies started from Louisa to the scene of the trouble. Wallace escaped to Yorkville, but all of his live stock was killed by the mob.

It is estimated that about 500 shots were fired and that 10 members of the attacking crowd were wounded. A reward of $1,000 has been offered for the apprehension of any member of the mob.

Quick Arrest.

J. A. Gullledge, of Verbeena, Ala., was twice in the hospital from a severe case of piles, causing 24 tumors. After doctors and all remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him. It conquers inflammation and quickly arrested further aches and kills pain. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Drug gists.

Leaped Into the Ocean.

Elizabeth Henkel, sixteen years of age, leaped from the deck of the Old Dominion steamship Princess Anne and was drowned while that ship was at sea Monday night, en route to Norfolk from New York. The cause of her suicide is unknown. On a couch in the state-room occupied by Miss Henkel was a note saying: "Good-by; God will take care of me. Please notify my mother, at 223 Prospect street, Bridgeport, Conn., and my father, at 43 Clinton street, Wakefield, Mass." On the bed in the state-room was a Bible, which showed that Miss Henkel had been reading before she plunged from the deck of the ship into the waves. The state-room was securely locked from the inside and an open window was evidence of how the girl reached the deck. Miss Henkel evidently waited until midnight when all of the passengers on the ship had retired before she made the fatal plunge. The maids on the steamer say that the missing girl was fashionably attired, her clothes and hat, which she left behind, all being expensive. The officials of the line have notified the parents of the missing girl of her death.

It is believed in Wakefield, Mass., that the young woman who is supposed to have committed suicide from the steamer Princess Anne was the daughter of F. J. Henkel, of that town. Elizabeth Henkel, or Bessie Henkel, as she was better known, was about twenty years old, and was graduated from the Wakefield high school two years ago. Her father is connected with a piano factory at Wakefield and is a large property owner. Mr. and Mrs. Henkel have not lived together for several years, and the daughter divided her time between her father and mother. She visited Wakefield a few weeks ago, and then left for New York, where her mother resides. The girl possessed remarkable beauty.

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy test the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co., druggists.

A Good Complexion.

"Sparkling eyes and rosy cheeks restored by using Dr. Williams' Little Early Risers," so writes S. P. Moore, of Nacogdoches, Tex. A ceruin cure for biliousness, constipation, etc. Small pill—easy to take—easy to act. Sold by all druggists.
